

I am a strong supporter of the XM Traffic and Weather broadcast. In the winter when I was in Florida, I used them extensively. This is one of the types of programs that makes XM satellite radio so valuable. Since I am a paid subscriber, I believe I should have a large variety of programs, including traffic and weather.

The NAB should work with its member stations to improve their program content, not try to obstruct what I am willing to pay to hear.